

2024-2025 Cost of Attendance

Below is a breakdown of your estimated costs, both direct (billable) costs and indirect (non-billable) costs, for an academic year's worth of attendance. Budgets are an estimate for the incoming class each fall and are updated annually. Tusculum does not bill an out-of-state tuition rate for non-Tennessee Residents.

*Traditional Students are only charged per credit hour if they do not register for at least 12 credit hours. 12-19 credit hours are charged at the flat tuition rate listed above.

*Traditional Students On Campus Direct Cost: Tuition, Housing, Food, and General Fee. Traditional Students Off Campus, Adult & Online Studies Undergraduate, and Master's Programs Direct Cost: Tuition and General Fee.

*Adult and Online Studies Undergraduate and Master's Programs Tuition is factored at taking 30 credit hours per academic year. If a student wishes to take above 30 or below 30 credit hours in the academic year, then the tuition amount listed above will change.

Disclaimer: If you need to increase your individual cost of attendance in order to borrow a higher loan amount, please contact the Office of Financial Aid. Your individual cost of attendance may be increased for the following adjustments: purchase of computer, childcare costs, higher off-campus housing, cost of professional testing, study abroad opportunities, etc.
